Supporting Women and Girls in India

Millions of people in India are still living in abject poverty due to the social conditions. This is particularly true for girls and women. Catastrophic hygienic conditions, the lack of education and of employment opportunities are very often the cause of desperate living conditions.

Girls and women, who are traditionally of less value in India, have little chance to find a way out of this hopeless existence. School attendance and a solid professional training remain mostly denied to them as they have to resume extensive work in their homes or on fields as small children already.

Our goal is mainly to support women and girls from disadvantaged backgrounds by helping them to help themselves. Profound school and vocational education is the safest way to escape societal discrimination and poverty.

School and Vocational Projects

In cooperation with local aid organizations we support numerous projects for the advancement of girls and women. Through our activities more and more girls reach graduation and vocational education for jobs such as kindergarten teacher, computer expert, bank clerk and sewer. With the possibility of an own salary the social situation of the whole family increases.

Mother and Child Care

We operate a nursery school in a slum in Mumbai and establish women centers in rural areas. Our care is especially directed to pregnant women, because pregnancy still implies a high risk to mother and child. Through this support we significantly decrease the mother- and infant mortality. As part of this program, women are also fully informed about self-determined family planning.

Water well and ecological projects

Even today long marches need to be walked by women and girls in order to obtain clean drinking water or wood in rural areas. With our wells that are manually, electrically and increasingly solar energy operated, we support whole communities. Particularly, the wells have a positive impact on women, as they gain time for their families. The acquisition of solar cookers is improving the eco-balance in the villages. With this use of solar energy, we act contrary to the conventional deforestation or waste of manure.

Micro Credits

We provide motivated women interest-free micro credits or provide equipment such as sewing machines, grain mills and starter kits in order to establishing their own businesses.

Sponsorships

In collaboration with local organizations Chance auf Leben e.V. (Chance of Life) conveys sponsorships for economically and socially disadvantaged girls. By taking over a sponsorship of only € 120 a year you give a girl the necessary schooling and thus also contribute to improving the living conditions of the family of the girl. Taking over a sponsorship means providing direct and personalized help. Every year, each sponsor receives a detailed report from the social worker on the personal and educational developments of their godchild.

The assumption of a sponsorship from Chance of Life is considered a donation and therefore tax deductible. No contractual commitment is made by a sponsorship. You can stop your sponsorship at any time without prior notice or reasoning. A short notification is enough.
